

“Advanced” Functional Concepts

Partial Application (and Currying)
Recursion

Partial Application & Currying

Partial application is when we “fix” some number of a function’s arguments to specific values

Partial Application & Currying

Partial application can be used to create specific versions of more general functions

Recursion

Recursion is when a function calls itself